A Kimberley Adventure 350 million years in the making

Welcome to Gooniyandi Country

Mimbi Caves at the heart of Gooniyandi country is part of the 350 million year old Devonian Reef system. Radiocarbon dating from ancient fireplaces confirm that Aboriginal people have inhabited this part of the Kimberley for more than 40,000 years.

Girloorloo Tours Mimbi Caves

Your Gooniyandi guides invite you to join them on an inspiring guided tour of one of Australia's most spectacular and significant, natural geological sites. Mimbi caves is a place of deep spiritual significance to the Gooniyandi people as well as being one of the most significant Devonian fossil sites in the world.

This amazing cave system will take your breath away with its vivid colours and beautiful limestone rock formations, while the history and Dreaming stories of the local Gooniyandi people take on a life of their own when shared deep within the heart of the caves. An experience that will stay with you forever.

Spectacular Geology & Rock Art

Mimbi cave system reveals ancient rock art and fossilised reefs that are amongst the best preserved in the world. Your guides will share a wealth of information about the cultural uses of the caves and how the cave systems were formed, pointing out rock formations including speleothems, tall slender stalagmites, shawls, flowstones and sparkling calcite crystals formed over millennia.
